JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Almuntasser Hbaisu, is hereby committed on Counts 14 and 15 of the 26-count fourth superseding indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of TWENTY-FOUR (24) MONTHS. This term consists of 12 months on Count 14 and 24 months on Counts 15, all to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of two (2) years. This term consists of one year on count 14 and two years on count 15 of the 26-count fourth superseding indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05;
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and fine in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment to the extent that either remains unpaid;
3. The defendant shall submit his business to: (a) a reasonable number of regular or unannounced examinations of its books and records at appropriate business premises by the Probation Officer or any agency directed by the USPO; and (b) questioning of knowledgeable individuals within the organization;
4. The defendant shall be prohibited from engaging in the production, sale or any commerce concerning male enhancement products;
5. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation if any remains outstanding. In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation; and
6. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons at or before noon on May 3, 2016. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the Roybal Federal Building, 255 East Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90012.

The bond is exonerated upon self-surrender.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $125, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $60,000 consisting of the following: Count 14, a fine of $10,000; and Count 15, a fine of $50,000. The total fine shall bear interest as provided by law.

The fine shall be paid in full no later than 120 days after sentencing.

The Court has found that the property and monies identified in the Government's position papers are subject to forfeiture. There is no objection by defendant or his counsel. The parties shall file a stipulation that identifies specifically the forfeited property. The order, upon its entry, shall be made a part of this Judgment.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All remaining counts are dismissed as to this defendant only.

The Court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that the defendant be housed at either the FCI Lompoc or FCI Taft facility.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
